Negril Overview

Fall in step with the "Island of All Right" by learning about the island's traditions, language, cuisine, art and music. Negril's main attraction is Seven Mile Beach, where surfing the waves or strolling along the shore are great ways to spend the day. Explore Long Bay Beach Park, a private area where you can avoid the crowds to enjoy a picnic on the beach or a soothing rest in a hammock.

Climb 100 stairs to Negril Lighthouse, built in 1894, for a spectacular panoramic view of the area. You may be familiar with the world-famous Dunn's River Falls in Ocho Rios, but Negril has its own waterfall nearby — Mayfield Falls — that is also a great spot for hiking.

From inexpensive souvenirs to upscale jewelry stores, Negril is known for its shopping. Stop at a duty-free shop near Sunshine Plaza, or checkout the main craft market for authentic Jamaican products. And best of all, have fun bartering with the locals. And, for the ultimate way to end a day, stop by Rick's Cafe for delicious Caribbean fare, breathtaking views and spectacular sunsets.

Hideaway at Royalton Negril – Adults Only
